Welcome to Spoilt

After graduating from the Lillian Maund International School of Beauty in 2001, I extended my career in the USA and Bermuda. During my 6 years working overseas I gained fantastic experience and learned new techniques that I am proud to share with our clients.

In 2006, I got the amazing opportunity to be part of the creation of Spoilt at Smiths and what was originally planned as a small beauty salon catered for the wedding market developed into a buzzing salon with day spa ethos where locals alongside wedding parties enjoy our different approach of the beauty industry. Deciding to take Spoilt at Smiths to a new level, I became the owner of the salon in December 2010.

Our biggest achievement to date was In 2013 when we won "Scottish Make-up Artist of the Year" at the INAA Awards.

We are proud to be the only Boutique salon with day spa ethos in the area. We strive to provide both quality service and innovative treatments with immediate and progressive results.

I would like to introduce you to our product houses, which I think you will love!
